

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute is pleased to announce another Division of Law Seminar

The Nuts and Bolts of Attorney/Client Privilege and the Work Product Doctrine in the Government Context

AAG Lewis A. Scheindlin
DAG Gregory Spellmeyer
Division of Law

February 10, 2010
Hughes Justice Complex/Fourth Floor Conference Center
10:00 a.m.-11:30 a.m.

This seminar will provide the nuts and bolts of the law and practice involving the attorney/client privilege, deliberative process privilege and the attorney work product doctrine. The course will address the law and issues that relate to applying these doctrines in the government context, including practical tips on dealing with requests or demands for records which include privileged or protected materials.

Who is the faculty?

AAG Lewis Scheindlin is in the Assistant Attorney General for Appeals in the Division of Law. In addition, he deals extensively with privilege issues in overseeing the Open Public Records Act legal advice and litigation on behalf of all State agencies.

DAG Gregory Spellmeyer is a Senior Litigation Deputy Attorney General within the Division of Law's Litigation Practice Group. He is the DOL contact person for coordinating State agency responses to criminal law enforcement and civil investigatory subpoenas.

Who should attend ?

This seminar is useful to all Department of Law & Public Safety attorneys wishing to learn or review the nuts and bolts of privilege law and practice.
