

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

Pretrial Preparation of a Homicide Case

Thomas J. Kapsak, Esq.

February 25, 2010

12:30-1:30 p.m.

Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office
Wade Baker Room
25 Kirkpatrick Street, New Brunswick, NJ

This seminar is designed to assist attorneys in preparation of a homicide case. The topics covered include developing legal and thematic theories, evidence gathering and use, pre-trial discovery, the handling of fact and expert witnesses, judge and jury issues, relationships with opposing counsel, and trial preparation and presentation. While the seminar relates specifically to homicide cases, this presentation will also be useful for trial preparation in general.

Who is the faculty?

Thomas J. Kapsak, Esq. is a retired Middlesex County Assistant Prosecutor. He has participated in over 350 homicide investigations and tried 38 homicide cases, including 7 capital cases. In 2004 he received the New Jersey Prosecutor's Association First Annual Career Advocacy Award. Mr. Kapsak has lectured frequently on criminal law and trial practice.
