*The Advocacy Institute is pleased to announce
Another Division of Law Seminar*

Ethics and E-Discovery

Robert Stoloff, AAG
Division of Law

March 15, 2010
10:00 a.m.-11:30 p.m.

124 Halsey Street
Fifth Floor Conference Center
Newark, NJ

This program will address how the developing law of electronic discovery presents new challenges relating to attorneys' professional obligations, including the handling of metadata, obligations to cooperate, maintaining the attorney-client privilege and the most basic requirement of competence.

Who should attend ?

This seminar is useful to attorneys who handle civil litigation in State or federal court or before administrative agencies, as well as attorneys who advise agency clients that may become involved in such litigation.

Who is the faculty?

Robert Stoloff, AAG, has been with the Division of Law for 33 years, serving in a variety of capacities. AAG Stoloff chairs the Division of Law's E-Discovery Working Group and has participated in an ad hoc working group providing advice to the Office of Information Technology regarding E-Discovery issues.
