Program Summary

The demands of litigation are seemingly never ending. Despite the pressures of these demands, attorneys are both ethically and professionally obligated to treat members of the bar and others with whom they deal with courtesy and respect, while effectively representing their clients. This very engaging and thought provoking presentation will focus on what is expected of attorneys in terms of civility and professionalism when appearing before the courts of this State and will discuss strategies for doing so in those difficult situations where others may be acting in a confrontational or inappropriate manner.

Who Should Attend?

Registration for this course is limited to those who have been selected to participate in the State House Series programs. Please do not attempt to register if you have not been notified of your eligibility for this series.
