Program Summary

Twenty years ago, the world first met Harry Potter. Although at that time, young Harry was living under a staircase, over the next ten years Muggles everywhere watched him grow up to be the Rules of Professional Conduct's "citizen with a special responsibility for the quality of justice." In this program, travel with the young wizard through J.K. Rowling's popular series and encounter Harry's lessons on rules, justice, forgiveness, honor, and the magic in practicing law.

With humor and insight, Professor Greg Randall Lee analogizes lawyers to wizards and explains:

- How we can use our "magic" to make the world a better place.
- Why words matter.
- Why no opportunity to do good should ever be wasted.
- Why lawyers bear responsibility for community.
- Why we should be inspired by others, but also be a source of inspiration.
- Why we should be personally involved in our clients' matters, but not take things personally.
- Why we should stand with people who have no one else to stand with them and understand that the world you save, is a world worth saving.
- Why the mechanisms of justice should be used as a means to restore, rather than to extract revenge.

Who Should Attend?

This program is open to all government attorneys, space providing.

Who Is the Faculty?

Professor Greg Randall Lee is a Professor of Law at Widener University Commonwealth Law School, where he teaches Constitutional Law, Professional Responsibility and Torts. He was selected as Widener's Outstanding Law Professor by the graduating class of 1995 and received Widener Law School's inaugural Outstanding Teacher award as selected by the alumni in 1999. Professor Lee's ABA moot court teams advanced to Nationals three times in four years, and his 1993 team was recognized for the third best brief in the nation.

He served as the chair of the Association of American Law Schools (AALS) Section on Professional Responsibility and coordinates an annual conference between the deans of students of Pennsylvania's law schools and Pennsylvania Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers. A leading advocate for the rights of people who are deaf or hard of hearing, Professor Lee worked on the first case to guarantee people who are deaf the right to serve as jurors and also worked with the Pennsylvania Office of Mental Health to guarantee people who are deaf, deaf and blind or hard of hearing equal and effective access to mental health services. He is a former coach of blind and deaf wrestlers and coached two first team Deaf All-Americans and one East Coast Blind Conference champion.

Professor Lee has consulted on various issues with judicial and executive agencies in five states as well as with the Hearing Loss Association of America, the National Association for the Deaf, the American Deafness and Rehabilitation Association, NorCal Center for Law and the Deaf, and the National Center for Law and the Deaf. He has published over 40 law-related articles and is working on a book with Pulitzer Prize - winning author Robert Coles.

Professor Lee has spoken on everything from God to fatherhood and Charles Dickens to Bruce Springsteen and has been an invited participant at conferences at a number of institutions, including Boston College, Duke, Fordham, Gallaudet University, New York University, Notre Dame, Penn State, Pepperdine, Villanova and the Wharton School of Business. He has also spoken at programs sponsored by the Pennsylvania Commonwealth, Common Pleas and Superior Courts and is a frequent CLE presenter on ethics topics.

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: njagai@njoag.gov for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at <http://www.state.nj.us> and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute's Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
