Program Summary

No Supreme Court decision on criminal law has been more misunderstood than Miranda v. Arizona. This presentation will cover many of the most common myths and misconceptions about Miranda. The goal is to help prosecutors develop a better understanding of the legal standards applicable to Fifth Amendment jurisprudence so they can make all reasonable arguments on behalf of the State in court and provide sound advice to law enforcement officers in the field.

Who Should Attend?

This program is intended for attorneys who handle criminal cases. Others, however, may find the issues discussed to be of interest.

Who Is the Faculty?

DAG Daniel I. Bornstein has served as Chief of the Appellate Bureau of the Division of Criminal Justice since September 2014. He started working for the Division of Criminal Justice in 1995, and for about seven years, he handled criminal trials and appeals while being simultaneously assigned to the Appellate Bureau and the Gangs & Organized Crime Bureau. While in the Gangs & Organized Crime Bureau, DAG Bornstein successfully prosecuted and tried cases involving homicide, racketeering, and weapons and narcotics offenses, including several multi-defendant wiretap cases. While in the Appellate Bureau, DAG Bornstein regularly handles appeals before the New Jersey Supreme Court and Appellate Division. He has also handled habeas petitions before the United States District Court and Third Circuit Court of Appeals. He currently supervises DAsG in the Appellate Bureau, and he regularly provides trial assistance to assistant prosecutors and trial DAsG across the State. He also has made numerous presentations for the NJ Attorney General's Office's Advocacy Institute. DAG Bornstein graduated magna cum laude from Colgate University and received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He clerked for the Honorable Martin J. Kole, J.A.D., t/a, and the Honorable Theodore A. Winard, J.S.C.
